

TOGETHER

Presented by
Abundant Art

CROSS ARTS

With art we rethink and reset for a better tomorrow

Private View, Thursday, 17th March 4.30-8.30pm

“Together” By Artist Animesh Biswas

A Cross Arts exhibition that explores new potential and paints personal journeys. It features art and design, gifts and merchandise, paintings, sculptures and live installation

Venue- October Gallery, 24 Old Gloucester Street, WC1N 3AL, RSVP (below) by 10th March

www.abundantart.net

We look forward to welcoming you to the exhibition.

You are invited to our private view. Join the young artists from our partner organisation Westminster Kingsway College reflecting on contemporary themes of diversity, the environment, sustainability, mental health and social interactions.

This exhibition is part of Abundant Art's larger cross arts community regeneration project. Launched during the lockdown, it provides a platform for young students to explore their creative perspectives and imaginations.

The exhibition will also showcase a selection of contemporary Indian paintings, prints and sculptures from Abundant Art Gallery's international portfolio of artists to support this Cross Arts initiative.

The exhibition explores three key themes;
Our Environment
Our Community
Our Wellbeing

Works from intergenerational artists, exploring thoughts about the future, in response to present political and social issues.

Presented by Educational Partner

Gallery Partners

Supported by

TOGETHER

Presented by
Abundant Art

CROSS ARTS

With art we rethink and reset for a better tomorrow

Private View, Thursday, 17th March 4.30-8.30pm, by invitation only.
Free Entry, Friday 18th March 10.00am-3.00pm

"Together" By Artist Animesh Biswas

A Cross Arts exhibition that explores new potential and paints personal journeys. It features art and design, gifts and merchandise, paintings, sculptures and live installation

Venue- October Gallery, 24 Old Gloucester Street, WC1N 3AL, RSVP (below) by 10th March

www.abundantart.net

We look forward to welcoming you to the exhibition.

You are invited to our private view. Join the young artists from our partner organisation Westminster Kingsway College reflecting on contemporary themes of diversity, the environment, sustainability, mental health and social interactions.

This exhibition is part of Abundant Art's larger cross arts community regeneration project. Launched during the lockdown, it provides a platform for young students to explore their creative perspectives and imaginations.

The exhibition will also showcase a selection of contemporary Indian paintings, prints and sculptures from Abundant Art Gallery's international portfolio of artists to support this Cross Arts initiative.

The exhibition explores three key themes;
Our Environment
Our Community
Our Wellbeing

Works from intergenerational artists, exploring thoughts about the future, in response to present political and social issues.

Presented by Educational Partner

Gallery Partners

Supported by

TOGETHER

Presented by
Abundant Art

CROSS ARTS

With art we rethink and reset for a better tomorrow

Friday, 18th March 10.00am-3.00pm, Free Entry

"Together" By Artist Animesh Biswas

A Cross Arts exhibition that explores new potential and paints personal journeys. It features art and design, gifts and merchandise, paintings, sculptures and live installation

Venue- October Gallery, 24 Old Gloucester Street, WC1N 3AL

www.abundantart.net

We look forward to welcoming you to the exhibition.

Join the young artists from our partner organisation Westminster Kingsway College reflecting on contemporary themes of diversity, the environment, sustainability, mental health and social interactions.

This exhibition is part of Abundant Art's larger cross arts community regeneration project. Launched during the lockdown, it provides a platform for young students to explore their creative perspectives and imaginations.

The exhibition will also showcase a selection of contemporary Indian paintings, prints and sculptures from Abundant Art Gallery's international portfolio of artists to support this Cross Arts initiative.

The exhibition explores three key themes;
Our Environment
Our Community
Our Wellbeing

Works from intergenerational artists, exploring thoughts about the future, in response to present political and social issues.

Presented by Educational Partner

Gallery Partners

Supported by

TOGETHER

With art we Rethink and Reset for a better tomorrow

Private View

Thursday, 17th March 4.30-8.30

RVSP by 10th of March rvspinfo@abundantart.netbytedmarch

Presented by

CROSS

ARTS

RVSP
HERE

Together™ By Artist Animesh Biswas

A Cross Arts exhibition that explores new potential and paints personal journeys. It features art and design, gifts and merchandise, paintings, sculptures and live installations.

We look forward to welcoming you to the exhibition.

You are invited at our private view. Join the young artists from our partner organisation Westminster Kingsway College reflecting on contemporary themes of diversity, environment, sustainability, mental health and social interactions.

This exhibition is part of Abundant Art's larger cross arts community regeneration project. Launched during the enforced isolation of lockdowns it provides a platform for young students to explore their creative perspectives and imaginations.

Guest artist Shawn Loudress joins us with his debut presentation- an immersive installation exploring the sights and sounds of London.

The exhibition will also showcase a selection of contemporary Indian paintings, prints and sculptures from Abundant Art Gallery's international portfolio of artists to support this Cross Arts initiative.

<https://www.abundantart.net>

Presented by

Educational Partner

Gallery Partners

Abundant Art

Supported by

Copyright © 2022 Abundant Art UK Ltd. All Rights Reserved.